UCH DAMAGE WAS WROUGHT

Reports Came In the Damage In the Way of Houses Destroyed Increases—Many People Hurt by Flying Timbers.

New Orleans, Oct. 6.—A small tornado passed diagonally across the residential portions of the city about 8 a. m. Friday, taking off roofs, tearing down fences and doing other damage. No one is reported injured. The tornado crossed the river about Jena street, in the up-town district, and cut across to the rear of the Third ward, one side of which is bounded by Canal street.

The air was filled with flying plants and other debris.

Great excitement was caused in the districts affected by the twisted wind.

Further reports from the tornado indicate that a number of houses were blown down by the wind in different parts of the city lying in the track of the storm.

At First and Magnolia streets, a house is reported demolished and a woman and child severely hurt.

A factory at Erato and Magnolia streets is reported to have suffered severly.

A special from Hammond, La., on the Illinois Central railroad, about 50 miles from New Orleans, says that a tornado struck Pontchatoula near there Friday morning, and did heavy damage to property and killed four persons. A number were injured.

The Jai Alai skating rink at Milan and Carondelet streets was blown to pieces and the debris from it scattered in every direction.

As reports come in the damage in the way of houses destroyed increases. There are reports also of people hurt by flying timbers.

The tornado crossing the river near Audubon park, swept in a northwesterly direction over the city, crossing Canal street to the wood side of Claiborne street. It was preceded by a thunderous noise. Along its whole path of 3 miles or more damage was done.

Telephone and telegraph poles were prostrated and communication with many parts of the city was rendered impossible. Debris strewn along its track put the Peters avenue line temporarily out of business.

At Toledano and Saratoga streets, a new market in process of construction was leveled. Five new residences in that neighborhood were razed.

A negro in Douglas square was picked up bodily and blown away.

Some damage was done at the gas works in the rear of the Third ward.

Much damage was done at the oil mill in the same neighborhood.

A warehouse at Liberty and Poydras streets was blown down. A heavy iron car there was turned upside down.

Heavy Rain at Mobile.

Edmonds Charged With Murder.

Atlanta, Oct. 6.—Through the work of City Detectives Lockhart and Lanford, the Fulton county grand jury Thursday found a true bill charging murder against one of the rioters of Saturday night, Sept. 22. The man indicted is Walter Edmonds, a butcher, and he is charged with having killed Frank Smith, the negro messenger boy, while the latter was running across the Forsyth street viaduct in advance of a howling mob. Edmonds was taken in custody late Thursday afternoon at a Marietta street stock yard by Detectives Lockhart and Lanford, and is now lodged in the Tower. The dead negro was employed by the Western Union Telegraph company.

DRUGGISTS NAME OFFICERS.

Convention Closes After Adopting Ringing Resolutions.

Atlanta, Oct. 6.—With the adoption of decisive resolutions enlarging the policy of the organization, and the election of officers, the business sessions of the eighth annual convention of the National Association of Retail Druggists closed late Thursday afternoon.

The four days' gathering was one of the most interesting and important since the birth of the association eight years ago. The delegates did not leave Atlanta until Friday afternoon, after they had been the guests of the Atlanta Druggists' association at a monster barbecue given at Ponce de Leon Springs.

The resolutions that were finally adopted, which are in a way the platform planks of the association, while not radical, dealt forcefully with the plans and purposes of the organization and outlined the future principles.

They emphatically favored the direct and serial contract plan; commend the pure food law; advocated a more thorough preparation and training of pharmacists; opposed the mail order method and adopted a number of other suggestions of mutual interest to members.

The recommendation to raise the annual dues was lost, as was also the advancing of the collegiate requirements.

The slate that had been prepared by the nominating committee for officers for the ensuing year was ratified by the convention, and the new officials are as follows:

President—Charles F. Mann, Michigan.

First Vice President—W. S. Elkin, Jr., Georgia.

Second Vice President—T. F. Hagenow, Missouri.

Third Vice President—E. B. Hyde, Vermont.

Secretary—Thomas V. Wooten, Illinois.

Treasurer—Louis Emanuel, Pennsylvania.

Executive Committee—Simon N. Jones, chairman, Kentucky; Thomas H. Potts, Pennsylvania; Jacob Diner, New York; M. T. Breslin, Louisiana; William H. Wheeler, Massachusetts; Edward Williams, Wisconsin.

A delightful smoker was given the visitors and delegates Thursday night in the banquet room of the Kimball, with Polk Miller as the principal entertainer. The informal banquet only presaged the enjoyable barbecue given Friday afternoon.

Good Price For the Tobacco.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 6.—It is asserted on perfectly reliable authority that F. J. Ewing, general manager of the Dark Tobacco Planters' Protective association, had sold to a representative of the Italian government all he had in dark tobacco belonging to the association that is suitable for the Italian trade on a basis of $10.85 per hundred. This is regarded by the tobacco men of Tennessee and Kentucky as being a great victory for the planters, as they get their price.

He Is Charged With Libel.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 6.—F. P. Davis, a superintendent of the International Harvester company's exhibits at the fair, was lodged at the police station on the charge of libel from Commerce, Ga. His friends are unable to find out the nature of the case, and efforts are being made to reach authorities there with a view of getting his release. He is prominent, and at a loss to know for what conduct he was indicted for libel.

Died at Advanced Age of 105 Years.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 6.—A special to the Advertiser says "Aunt" Betty Allen of Larkin, Jackson county, Ala., died after having closed her one hundred and fifth birthday. Her family records show that she was born in North Carolina in 1800. Her youngest son is 73 years old.

Modus Vivendi Reached.

EIGHTEEN CORPSES HAVE BEEN RESCUED

30 to 40 Others are Entombed In Mine.

SCENES ABOUT MINE PITIFUL

Relations and Friends Grouped at Mouth Venting Their Grief—Two Members of a Rescue Party Killed by Gas.

Pocahontas, Va., Oct. 6.—Nineteen known dead and from 30 to 40 more are entombed and doubtless all dead, is the situation so far at the West Fork mines of the Pocahontas Collieries company, where the explosion occurred late Wednesday afternoon.

Parties coming to work from the Tug River on the West Virginia side of the mines did not know there had been any trouble in the mines until they ran into some bodies on the tracks, and some mules dead with a man pinned between them.

The bodies of these men were recovered from the mines as the result of the heroic work of a band of 35 men, constituting a rescue party that worked incessantly through the hours of the night and day. It was not until 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening that the rescuers reached a point near St. Paul entry, where the explosion occurred. The work of rescue was very slow, as the conditions confronting the party were difficult to surmount.

The authorities anticipated the fearful extent of the casualties by ordering a carload of coffins and burial supplies, which are now on the way. The order is being rushed at Bluefield.

Edward Jones, the inside mine foreman, led the first rescue party and when that party failed to return in a reasonable time, a second rescue party, under Superintendent Leckie followed. Two of Leckie's party, John Odham and Ed Brown, were overcome by gas and died, and Leckie barely escaped with his life. The third party was formed and continued the work. Meantime the first party had reached another entrance to the mine in safety and sent word over the mountain announcing that fact.

The scenes around the mine were pitiful. Relatives and friends gathering in groups at the entrances and elsewhere awaiting tidings of the victims and gave vent to their grief as the bodies one by one were brought out.

Six Killed by Explosion.

Philadelphia, Oct. 6.—A terrific explosion of illuminating gas in the subway of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company, under construction at Sixth and Market streets Friday, resulted in the death of six men, the injury of about a dozen others and caused property damage that will run into thousands of dollars. Besides the six men known to be dead, it is said that at least three others are buried under tons of the wrecks of the subway. The identified dead are John Lawless, foreman for a construction company; Frank Leans, an employe of the gas company, and R. Capero, a timber man. The explosion occurred shortly before 7 o'clock, and in consequence of the early hour but a few workmen had gathered. It was caused by a leak in a city gas main that had been improperly repaired. The escaping gas formed in a pocket in the subway and it is believed that a workman carrying a lamp into the great hole ignited the gas.

Millionaire Weds Trained Nurse.

New York, Oct. 6.—It became known Thursday that Charles D. Halliwell, first vice president of the American Tobacco company, was married Tuesday to Miss Ruth A. Cole, a trained nurse, who attended him through a long illness a few months ago. Last year Mr. Halliwell became ill through overwork. He underwent an operation and afterwards was put in the care of Miss Cole. She nursed him back to health and afterwards he seems to have found that he could not do without her. In the American Tobacco company, Mr. Halliwell is second in importance only to James B. Duke. His wealth has been estimated at $20,000,000.

TURPENTINE MEN FIX SCALE.

Fifty Operators Present at the Savannah Meeting.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 6.—Banded in a movement intended to put prices for labor upon a uniform basis, essentially prospective in its nature, the turpentine operators of Georgia met and perfected organization. Fifty operators from the turpentine belt were present. The organization of the Georgia operators undertook to be in close harmony with the recent action of the Turpentine Operators' association of Florida, which declared for a certain scale of wages for labor and placed a heavy penalty for the violation of the agreement. The scale adopted by the Georgia operators, however, shows an increase over that of the Florida operators. The scale of wages adopted is as follows:

For chipping round timber, 70 to 80 cents; back boxes, 70 to 90 cents; dipping, 40 to 60 cents for round barrels; raking 100 pines, 25 to 35 cents; raking crop of 10,500 boxes, $12 to $15; driving wagons, 90 cents to $1.25 per day; scraping by the hour, 10 cents per hour; cutting boxes, 11½ cents for good round timber; for back boxes and swamp, 13¾ cents.

The following rates will be applicable to renters: Turpentine in barrels, virgin boxes, $1.75 per barrel; yearling boxes, $2 to $2.50 per barrel; third year boxes and older, $2.50 and $3.50 per barrel.

A resolution was offered by J. W. Tippin, of Baxley, and adopted providing a maximum penalty of $200 to be imposed upon any member violating the wage scale.

The following officers were elected: President, W. G. Warnell of Hagan; first vice president, J. C. McCaskill, Bainbridge; second vice president, D. A. Bailey, Hawkinsville; third vice president, F. E. Field, Statesboro; secretary and treasurer, [illegible] Loach, Hagan.

Check Pronounced Forgery.

Valdosta, Ga., Oct. 6.—E. D. Ferrell, proprietor of the Valdes hotel, in this city, was the victim of a smooth swindler a few days ago, and offers a reward of $100 for the man's arrest. The party registered at the hotel under the name of W. B. Shepperd, and claimed to represent the Western Iron Works and Supply company of St. Louis. He gave the hotel man a check on the St. Louis house, signed by J. M. Herd, treasurer. The check was pronounced a forgery and returned by the house. It was stated that Shepperd had no connection with them and was not known to them, though they learned that he had been operating the same game in other towns, naming Opelika, Ala., and Tifton, Ga.

Light Monopoly Secured by City.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 6.—Negotiations which have been pending for several months were closed Friday whereby the Jacksonville Electric company agrees to transfer to the city of Jacksonville its franchise for electric lighting and will retire from further competition with the city plant, thus giving the city the exclusive right to furnish electricity to consumers. The Jacksonville Electric company operates the street railway system here and has been furnishing lights and power to consumers in competition with the municipal plant, doing a business of $60,000 a year.

Resigns His Commission.

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 6.—C. A. Mosher of Wichita received a commission as general in the Cuban army Wednesday and the next day he was asked to resign. His commission came directly from President Palma. He intended to raise a regiment of rough riders similar to the one led by Roosevelt in 1898. When Secretary Taft arrived in Havana, Mosher was asked to resign and return the contract sent him. In the same letter a draft was sent him for his salary as a Cuban general since the date of his commission. Mr. Mosher served in the Cuban army as a lieutenant in the Eighth Illinois infantry and is over 60 years old.

MOST EFFICIENT FACULTY

Students are Bending Every Energy in Their Studies--Handsome Silk Banner to Be Awarded--Other School Notes of Interest.

The University High School closed first week of the present session day, with an enrollment of 425 pils, eighty of which are in the High hool department proper. .

Judging from expressions from the ncipal, teachers and pupils, the r promises to be one of the best in history of the school.

The organization has been completed d the machinery is already running smooth as clock work. Everybody nnected with the school seems to be ppy, and the teachers are enthusiasc over the outlook.

The hold-over teachers have taken p their work with renewed vigor and terest, while the new ones have ready all fully justified the wisdom the board in selecting them. The hool has without doubt a faculty the ual at least of any school in the State.

Chapel exercises are held in the auditorium at 8:25 a. m. The principal requests The Sun to announce that a cordial invitation is extended to patrons and friends of the school to attend these chapel exercises, that they cannot come too often, and that they will not only be welcome but their presence will be greatly appreciated. The more interest the parents take in the school the more the school is able to do for the children.

At chapel exercises Friday, the principal announced that at the end of the first month a silk banner would be presented to the grade showing for the month the best attendance and deportment. The honor grade each month will be entitled to banner.

Three medals were announced for the High School—one each for the Freshman, Sophomore and Junior classes, for proficiency in English, Latin and mathematics.

Weekly Notes.

(Furnished by Pupils and Teachers.)

The Eighth grade declare they are not only going to win that banner, but are going to hold it. But the Sixth grade declare they will have something to say about that.

Beginning Monday we are going to see how neat and clean we can keep the school yard. The boys propose to keep their side just a little nicer than the girls keep theirs.

Two literary societies will be organized next Friday. These societies will meet each every other week in the auditorium at 2:10 p. m. Friday.

If anybody wants to see a big room full of busy, happy little people, just let them peep into the first, second or third grade rooms about nine o'clock in the morning.

Miss Rosabel Pedrick plays the marches and Miss Ruby DeLand the songs at chapel exercises.

The pupils are improving every day in marching in a quiet and orderly manner to and from their rooms.

The Seventh grade boys say they will know the right door from this time on.

Those High School and Eighth grade boys were not kept in last Wednesday afternoon. They were very kindly helping the principal take up and rearrange the desks in Miss Trotter's and Mrs. Coffey's rooms.

Miss Brant says she not only has the largest class in the grammar grades, but it is going to be also the most orderly and best working one before long.

The principal was wearing a beautiful hibiscus flower Friday. The question is, where did he get it?

The girls are thankful to the principal for giving them back their side of the school yard.

Dr. Kelley and Col. Hampton made fine speeches at the opening exercises last Monday. We hope they will come often. Mr. Vidal is going to make us a speech the next time he comes.

NOURISH

the body, don't dose it with medicine. Scott's Emulsion is the best nourishment in existence. It is more than a food; you may doubt it, but it digests perfectly easy and at the same time gets the digestive functions in a condition so that ordinary food can be easily digested. Try it if you are run down and your food doesn't nourish you.

GAINESVILLE STILL LEADS.

Prominent Oregon Man Compliments This City Upon Cigars.

Gainesville is not only becoming famous as an educational center, but also as a manufacturing town, especially when it comes to cigars.

It will be remembered that several weeks ago H. S. Thomas, proprietor of the La Matanzas cigar factory in this city, received an order for 500 cigars from Henry North, vice-president of the Polson Implement Company, Portland, Oregon, for private use. Mr. North stated that he met a friend from Gainesville with a pocket full of the University brand cigar, and that he liked the cigar so well he wanted to place the order.

The goods were shipped, and in due time a check was received, with the information that Mr. North was well pleased and that he regarded the University cigar "the best ever put on the market for the money."

Mr. Thomas is yet working a small force, but his goods have had a remarkable run, and it has been impossible for him to keep up with his orders even in the city.

NEWS FROM ALACHUA.

High School in a Prosperous Condition—Large Corn Crop.

Alachua, Fla., Oct. 6.—Dr. Jim Bishop ran up to Ancilla this week to take his brother, Master Isaac, home and spend a few days with his parents.

A. M. Westphal of Island Grove came up on the 2d to enter his daughter, Miss Lola, in the Alachua High School.

Masters Leon and Earle Traxler of Traxler entered the Alachua High School on the 1st.

C. V. McQueen of Lexington has moved his family to town, so that his children may have the excellent advantage afforded by our school.

The enrollment of the Alachua Junior High School is increasing almost every day. The number now enrolled is greater than the enrollment of any previous term at this season of the year. The school is thoroughly organized and the work is progressing very satisfactorily. The school is not making attempt at display, but from the standpoint of discipline and good, honest, faithful work, we invite comparison with any other school in the State. The conduct and spirit of the school is unsurpassed. In appearance, intelligence, behavior, and the faithfulness and energy with which each lesson is prepared and recited, the sixteen girls who make up the high school department are unequalled by any like number the writer has ever seen. But alas for the boys—there are none in the high school department. On this question the writer will have something to say in the future.

Most of the cotton is picked and is being brought to the gins very rapidly. Bell & Pettit's gin is kept busy and Turner's is running night and day.

The farmers of this section have produced a large corn crop, and the shortage in the cotton crop is offset by the abunbant "hog and hominy" crop. Most of the corn has been gathered and one farmer states that he has made enough to supply his needs for two years.

Mr. Smith of Cedar Town, Ga., has accepted the position of prescription clerk in the drug store of Dr. J. C. Bishop. Mr. Smith seems to be a splendid young man, and we welcome him to our town.

Liquid Corn.

An easterner was prospecting in the north Georgia mountains when he came on a native apparently clinging to the side of a steep hill tilling corn.

The prospector stopped for a chat, and the mountaineer, nothing loth for a rest in the shade from his fatiguing toil, was agreeable.

"Say, friend, how in the world do you get the corn down off that hillside after it is ready for harvest?" asked the stranger.

"In jugs," was the laconic and probably truthful reply.—Atlanta Georgian.

NAME SPELLINGS.

Diversity of Orthography Was Quite Common In the Past.

Nowadays if a man whose name was Brown should spell it Broun, Broon, Browen or Brun he would no doubt get into a variety of complicated troubles. Such a diversity of orthography does not seem to have annoyed the English poet Shakespeare, however, for his name appears with five different spellings, two of which are in his own handwriting.

In the register in the church at Stratford the name of the greatest English dramatist is written Shakspeare. It appears as Shakspeare in the body of his will, but this same will is indorsed "Mr. Shackspere's Will." The poet himself wrote his name Shakspere and Shakspeare, and now it is spelled Shakespeare.

Sir Walter Raleigh had numerous ways of spelling his name. It appears at different times and places as Rawley, Ralegh, Raleigh, Rawleigh and Raweley.

There is Ben Jonson's signature in which an h appears.

Dryden often spelled his name with an i.

Samuel Butler, author of "Hudibras," was known to write his name Boteler.

Dr. Crovne was so anxious to have his name pronounced correctly that he wrote it six different ways.

The French name Villers during the history of that family was spelled fourteen ways.

The girl's name Maud was one of those that have come down through the ages from the Saxon. Maud was originally Magan, which means to be able.

From the name Hannah the Greeks made Anna and Ananias. Anna, growing in favor, sent off various other offshoots, among which are Annette, Anita, Anne, Nancy, etc.

The name Johanan was brought to England by the Crusaders. Later it was contracted to John. In Ireland it became Shawn and in Scotland Ian. It took some years for this name to reach Russia. When it did it was called Ivan, and in Germany it became Hans.

The word William comes from ancient Teutonic mythology. It derived its origin from one of three primeval gods—Odin, Will and Ve.

In like manner we have Margaret from the Persian, meaning the child of light; Barbara from the Greek, meaning strength; Agnes from the Roman. Catharine from the fourth saint and countless others.

Watering Seed Beds.

Amateurs and inexperienced growers of flowers often make the mistake of watering the soil in which seeds are sown immediately after the sowing whether the soil is moist or not. The practice is a harmful one, generally speaking, and should not be indulged in except in unusual cases. If the soil or compost in which the seeds are sown is moist at the time of sowing no water should be used, as the soil becomes stiff and forms a crust on the surface which prevents the seeds from pushing through. After sowing the seed in any soil, except an exceedingly dry one, it is better to wait a day or two before watering or until the soil dries up pretty well. Then apply gently with a fine sprinkler just enough water to moisten the soil moderately throughout, which will suffice until the soil shows signs of dryness again. It is not necessary to give a little sprinkling every day, as some believe, for such treatment only makes matters worse.

Letter to J. S. Goode, Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Sir: Some people get disappointed in painting; it doesn't come out as they thought it would.

C. B. Edwards, of Edwards & Broughton, printers, Raleigh, N. C., painted his house Devoe three years ago; he had used 20 gallons paste paint before and bought 30 gallons Devoe. Had 16 left.

Paste paint is extra thick—with white-wash.

Mayor W. W. Carroll, Monticello, Florida, says: "My painter said it would take 25 gallons to paint my house; it took 20 gallons Devoe." His house is the best paint job in town; and he says Devoe is the whitest white of all white paints.

Jones & Rodgers bought 5 gallons Devoe to prime Mr. Pratt's house at Merkel, Texas. It painted two coats.

The reason for nobody guessing little enough Devoe is: they learned in a bad school; other paints

Yours truly,

Nothing Behind Her Back.

"Don't you know, dear," said his wife sweetly, "that it is wrong to talk behind a person's back?"

He was trying to button her waist at the time, and really there seemed to be provocation for his remarks.—Philadelphia Ledger.

MALARIA AN INSIDIOUS FOE TO HEALTH

Malaria is an atmospheric poison which we unconsciously breathe in our lungs through the impure air arising from low, marshy places, stagnant ponds, damp cellars, sewer pipes, improperly ventilated houses, decaying vegetable matter, etc. Day after day these germs and poisons are taken in the lungs, and as the blood passes through them it becomes infected with the poison and in its circulation distributes the microbes of disease to all parts of the body. Malaria is a very insidious disease; it gives no warning of its coming until the circulation is filled with the poison and this foe to health has the system at its mercy. The blood becomes polluted, thin and weak and its slow, irregular circulation fails to properly nourish and strengthen the body. Then the entire system is attacked, and if the germs and poisons of Malaria are allowed to remain the strongest constitution will break down. No one can feel well when the system is in a malarial condition; the vitality is weak, the appetite poor, digestion deranged, the complexion grows sallow and the entire body feels the effects of the poison. Malaria must be removed from the system through the circulation and the only medicine that can accomplish this is S. S. S. It not only cleanses the blood of all unhealthy morbid matter, but destroys the germs, cures Malaria and restores this vital fluid to a strong, healthy condition. S. S. S. is made of roots, herbs and barks combining purifying and tonic properties which keep the blood free of all poisons and the system in perfect condition. While destroying the germs of Malaria and building up the weak, polluted blood S. S. S. gives tone and vigor to the entire system. Book on the blood and any medical advice without charge.

A Most Worthy Article.

When an article has been on the market for years and gains friends every year, it is safe to call this medicine a worthy one. Such is Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It positively cures coughs and all pulmonary diseases. One of the best known merchants in Mobile, Ala., says: "For five years my family has not been troubled with the winter coughs. We owe this to Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I know it has saved my children from many sick spells." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

COOPER ACQUIRING LARGE FORTUNE

Recent Success in St. Louis is Phenomenal.

STATEMENTS NOW VERIFIED

Internal Parasites Are Undoubtedly Responsible For Much Ill Health. Hundreds Who Have Taken His Preparations Are Interviewed.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 6.—The remarkable results that are being accomplished in St. Louis by L. T. Cooper have become a topic of universal interest during the past week.

Reports that preceded his visit to this city told of Mr. Cooper's great success in the East. But the man and his medicine did not attract widespread attention until the beginning of his second week here. Then, the interest in him became very noticeable and has steadily gathered headway until his preparations are now being sold in enormous quantities and his headquarters is a most interesting place in which to spend a half-hour.

People are coming from all parts of the city to see him. The young man and his assistants are surrounded by swarms of humanity from early until late—some to tell what has been accomplished for them by the Cooper medicines; others to buy the remedies.

Perhaps nothing has done more to arouse this interest than Mr. Cooper's statement concerning internal parasites or tapeworms, as they are commonly called. At the commencement of his visit to this city, he claimed that these creatures were responsible for much of the ill health of this generation; he claimed that a large percentage of all chronic stomach trouble was caused by them; he stated that his "New Discovery" medicine would prove this theory to be correct, as it would remove hundreds of these tapeworms before he left the city.

These statements seem to have been completely verified. During the past two weeks hundreds of people who have been taking the Cooper preparation for some form of trouble have been relieved of one of these parasites. In consequence, Cooper and his theories have been growing into greater prominence each day.

Mr. Cooper's statement that a general lassitude was the surest indication of this trouble seems to be correct. Statements by people who have had this experience seem to be very much alike, all saying that a feeling of extreme weariness and a lack of energy which they attribute to stomach trouble, had afflicted them.

A statement of this character, which is almost identical with all those given by people who have had the same experience, is as follows:

Mrs. B. Prengel, living at 4040 St. Ferdinand street, who was relieved of one of these parasites by the Cooper preparation, when seen by a reporter, said:

"I have been in poor health for six years. I was in a general run-down condition. I attributed this to stomach trouble, as I had a very irregular appetite, and would have a bloating sensation after meals. My chief trouble was that I felt tired all the time. Even in the morning after a night's sleep I would wake up feeling no more refreshed than when I went to bed. I had dizzy spells and would see spots before my eyes, and the least exertion would tire me. It was an effort to attend to my duties and even my mind seemed dull and sluggish.

"My eyesight has been getting poorer lately, and I noticed that my memory was not as good as it used to be. If I stood for any length of time I would have a dull pain in the lower part of my back, and if I ascended the stairs quickly my heart beat very rapidly.

"I tried every sort of preparation, hoping to throw off this dull feeling. I heard so much about this man Cooper, that I decided to try his preparation. I bought two bottles of New Discovery. I took only a few doses of the preparation and a tapeworm left my system. It was about fifty feet in length, as near as I could judge. Now I know what has been the matter with me all these years and I am sure I will be all right again."

The success of these new preparations in St. Louis is confined largely to cases of stomach trouble, but the medicine seems to be remarkably successful in cases of rheumatism. Mr. Cooper ascribes this to the fact that stomach trouble is indirectly responsible for many diseases, rheumatism among them.

SCHOOL JANITOR IS SHOT

By Money Lender Who Claimed Negro Owed Him.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 6.—Smart Shellman, a negro, the janitor at St. Patrick's school, was shot and probably fatally wounded by J. E. Sims, Jr., the proprietor of the Carolina Trading company, a money-lending concern.

The shooting took place in State street, near Sims' place of business. Both men were placed under arrest. They were carried to the barracks, where Shellman's wound was pronounced probably fatal.

Sims made a statement, saying he had asked the negro for $4.20 owed him. The negro struck him first, and was on top of him, beating him, when he pulled his pistol and shot him. Shellman, in his statement, says he had been sent from the school to look up some children. He was met by Sims, who demanded that he be paid $4.20 due him, Shellman responding that he did not have the money, and that Otis Ashmore, superintendent of the schools, had told him he had paid enough on the debt, and ought not to pay any more.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the great discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by all druggists.

Crazy Motorman Terrified Passenger.

New York, Oct. 6.—A street car filled with terrified passengers dashed across New York at full speed while the motorman, Leo Schwartz, suddenly bereft of his reason, stood on the forward platform flourishing a heavy controller bar and threatening to brain any one who approached him. He was finally subdued and the car brought to a stop, after a desperate struggle with half a dozen policemen and street railway employes, during which several passengers jumped from the swiftly moving car and sustained painful injuries. One of the men who fought the mad motorman was severely injured.

THE SPECIAL ELECTION.

A special election will be held in this city next Tuesday for the purpose of amending the city charter so as to permit the council to do away with the publication of ordinances. The people have been appealed to to vote for this amendment on the ground of economy, but if the taxpayers consult their interests they will vote against the amendment, and let the charter stand requiring the publication of ordinances, as this is the only method by which the people can keep posted relative to what the council does in the way of passing laws. True, the publication of ordinances has cost considerable under the new charter during the past year, as is always the case under similar circumstances, but this expense has already been incurred, and the City Council has spent more money during the past year in their efforts to do away with the publication of ordinances than the publication would have cost for the next year.

There is not a city the size of Gainesville in the State of Florida in which the ordinances are not required to be published for at least four weeks, and if the people desire to be informed as to the legislation enacted by the council they will vote against the amendment.

Following is the form of ticket to be voted. Be sure to place an X mark where it appears below:

Vote for one:

FOR approval of ordinance as proposed amending Section 10 of the charter provisions of said city requiring printing or publishing of ordinances as may be determined by City Council

AGAINST approval of ordinance as proposed amending Section 10 of X the charter provisions of said city requiring printing or publishing of ordinances as may be determined by City Council.

A small Kansas boy was once called in to view his new born-baby brother. He looked it over with dissatisfaction, and finally asked: "Mamma, where did this thing come from?" "An angel brought it, Jimmie." "Wuz you awake when he came?" "Certainly, Jimmie." "Well, then, mamma, all that I have got to say, is that you are dead easy. I'd like to see an old angel put off such a looking thing on me. But I reckon we are stuck unless I kin work Johnny Green to trade it sight-unseen for one of his spotted pups."

In this age of trusts the newspaper man has not been forgotten, and so we have the type founders trust. There can be no doubt as to its existence with the present price of printers' material, all priced alike in the different catalogues, and all cuts on discounts coming from the different houses in the same form and at the same time. The publishers have been quiety enduring the extortion of the type founders for years, and it is time we had our innings.

To bring up a child in the way he should go, travel that way yourself. Stories first heard at a mother's knee are never wholly forgotten—a little spring that never dries up on our journey through scorching years. The sooner you get a child to be a law unto himself, the sooner you make a man of him. Children need models more than criticism. We can never check what is in the young unless we cherish what is good in them.

J. W. White has been named as one of the commissioners to the Tampa Fair. White is a hustler, and Duval county will have an excellent exhibit if he is to have his way. He can do more in the exhibit line with a little money than most any man in this State.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

HIGH SPRINGS NOTES.

Mrs. G. P. Webb and Family Remove to Dunnellon.

High Springs, Oct. 6.—Mrs G. P. Webb and family are leaving High Springs for Dunnellon, where their future home will be. Their departure caused universal regret in town. Mrs. Webb has been organist in the Methodist church and a leader in all church work for the nine years she has lived here, and her children have grown up to be useful and popular members of society. The loss of such a family leaves a vacancy hard to fill.

Mrs. P. P. Wood and little son, Paul, have returned from Dunnedin, where they have spent several weeks delightfully, enjoying the fine bathing, fishing and sailing.

Mrs. M. P. Summers, who has been spending a few weeks in Tampa, the guest of her grandfather, Dr. Mathers, has returned much improved in health.

Drs. Williams & Williams of Jasper spent a week here, doing some fine dental work.

Mrs. W. T. Knight of Savannah is the guest of relatives here, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Wood.

B. R. Piper of Jacksonville has concluded a successful canvass of High Springs and placed the Students' Reference Work in many homes.

The Spider-web party given by the ladies of the Methodist church last week was a success, both socially and financilly.

Repents His Action.

New York, Oct. 6.—A London special says Manager Bauchoir of the Garrick theater, who, when he produced "The Morals of Marcus" early in September, practically excluded the dramatic critics from the theater, has repented. He now writes to the editors of the London papers and humbly entreats to allow custom notices of the play to appear in their columns. He says he does this in justice to the author of the play and the characters cast therein.

Sour Stomach

"I used Cascarets and feel like a new man. I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia and sour stomach for the last two years. I have been taking medicine and other drugs, but could find no relief only for a short time. I will recommend Cascarets to my friends as the only thing for indigestion and sour stomach and to keep the bowels in good condition. They are very nice to eat."

MOOR OF VENICE

OF THE OTHELLOS AND IAGOS OF THE PAST.

...mous Actors Have Been Suc... In the Great Tragedy—Ed... Kean's Characterization of ...or—Kean's Death.

...s struck by the number of great ...who have attempted Othello and ...in it. The really successful ...s are a very small and select ...y. Burbage, one assumes, was ...ginal Moor, and was probably ...d in it as in any other part he ...

...get in Mr. Pepys' Diary two ...references to the play. On Oct. ..., he tells us he went with Mr. ...ry and Mr. Creed to see "The ...of Venice," as it was always ...then. It "was well done. Burt ...the Moor. By the same token a ...pretty lady that sat by me called ...see Desdemona smothered." ...years later, on Feb. 6, 1668, he ...: "To the king's playhouse, and ...in an upper box did see 'The ...of Venice,' but ill acted in most ...Mohun, which did a little sur... me, not acting Iago's part by ...so well as Clun used to do; nor ...ther Hart's, which was Cassio's, nor ...ked Burt doing the Moor's so well ...I once thought he did." But Mr. ...pys was in a bad temper that night, ...his carriage had broken down on ...way home, and he was "mightily ...ed, poor wretch."

Betterton's Othello would appear to ...ve been a remarkable performance. One writer speaks of "the terrible force ...of his Othello," and Addison says: "The wonderful agony which he appeared in when he examined the circumstance of the handkerchief in the part of Othello, the mixture of love that intruded upon his mind upon the innocent answers Desdemona makes, betrayed in his gesture such a variety and vicissitude of passions as would admonish a man to be afraid of his own heart."

It was in the Portugal Street theater, sometimes styled the Duke's theater, that Betterton played, but we have unfortunately but little record of his appearance in the part, nor do we know how he was dressed for it. The costume some of the old actors adopted for the part appears to modern taste quite ludicrous. In his "Autobiography" Reynolds tells us he remembered seeing Spranger Barry play Othello in a full suit of gold laced scarlet, a small cocked hat, knee breeches and silk stockings.

Garrick was but a poor Othello except in the scene where Iago first implants the suspicion of Desdemona, and Quin was very little superior. But Garrick did, at any rate, adopt Moorish costume, a startling innovation, which led one writer to say that he was unmeaningly dressed. On the first night Quin was in the pit and when Garrick entered exclaimed in allusion to Hogarth's black boy: "Here's Pompey, by —! Where's the lamp and the teakettle?"

John Philip Kemble also did much to improve the public ideas on the fitness of costume in the theater. The stiff skirted coat, breeches, waistcoat, black face, white, full bottomed wig and three cocked hat which tradition prescribed for Othello despite Garrick's laudable endeavor was swept away after Kemble's time. He himself played Iago much better than Othello, and Byron said of the performance that it was perfection.

Another very excellent Iago was George Frederick Cooke. Playing the part one night at York, he was loudly hissed by two or three men in the audience, who cried out, "What a villain!" It was a compliment he much appreciated.

Coming to Edmund Kean, we find this actor playing Othello and Iago on alternate nights. Dr. Doran says of Kean's Othello, "In the fiercer scenes he was unsurpassable, and in the great third act none who remembers him will, I think, be prepared to allow that he ever had or is likely to have an equal." His Iago was quite original. "a careless, cordial, comfortable villain," as Hazlitt calls him.

Subsequently Kean played Othello to the Iago of Young. It had been arranged that they should alternate the parts, but after the first performance Kean preferred to leave Iago to Young. "I flatter myself," he said to Whitbread, who was then manager of Drury Lane, "he could not act Othello as I, yet what chance should I have in Iago after him with his musical voice?"

Kean's last appearance on the stage, on March 25, 1833, was in "Othello," with his son Charles as Iago. Kean went through the play, "dying as he went," until he came to "Farewell! Othello's occupation gone." Then he gasped for breath, tried to begin the next speech and fell forward on his son's shoulder, moaning: "I am dying. Speak to them for me."

Charles Young was excellent as Iago, but when he tried Othello later to the Iago of Macready he failed altogether. Hazlitt said of the performance: "Young in Othello was like a great humming top, and Macready in Iago like a mischievous boy whipping him."

There have been other Othellos since, but few of renown. There was Gustavus Brookes, who appeared in the part at the Olympic in 1848; Charles Kean, at the Princess' in 1853; Salvini, who played it first at the Queen's, in Longacre, in 1875; Fechter played it without success in 1861; Phelps played it at the Princess, at Covent Garden, at Sadler's Wells and elsewhere; Sir Henry Irving first played the part in 1876 and subsequently alternated Othello and Iago with Edwin Booth; and, more recently, Forbes Robertson and Hubert Carter.

There have, of course, been burlesque Othellos, but in three cases at least the burlesque was quite unintentional. Othello was chosen for the first appearance of Samuel Foote at the Haymarket in 1744. The future droll and mimic was short and stout, with a round, flat face, and his acting of the Moor to the Iago of Macklin must have been very funny. But a century later, at the same theater, Sothern, of Dundreary fame, played Othello with Buckstone as Iago, which must have been even more amusing. Charles Mathews, the Seymour Hicks of an earlier age, also attempted Othello once, but only once. —New Orleans Times-Democrat.

TESTING METHODS

A test as to the value of newspaper advertising over other methods was made a year ago by the great publishing house of Harper & Bros. Two books were selected, one by a well known popular author and the other by an unknown writer. The latter was selected for the newspaper advertising and the other for the usual channels.

With equal expenditure the work advertised in the newspapers outstripped the other in sales by 200,000 copies.

The result was a complete surprise and established the fact that readers go to the newspapers for information with regard to books as well as with regard to most other matters.—National Printer-Journalist.

The best advertising medium for any merchant is the local paper which goes into the homes of the people, as this paper does.

Sports of British Columbia.

If Nimrod came to British Columbia he would experience another heyday. The sports of the forest and stream are triumphant there. Moose, elk, caribou, mountain goats and sheep, bears—grizzly, brown and black—mountain lions, or cougars, and deer of several kinds range in sufficient numbers for sport almost anywhere and in ample quantities for ruthless slaughter in many places, so that Nimrod, whether pothunter or sportsman, as the modern lines are drawn, would surely find satisfying excitement and trophies worthy of his fame and skill. Small game, too, spreads throughout the country, and the biggest bags are easily filled in a few hours' shooting. And old Izaak Walton, the father of angling, would find an abundance of the "contemplative man's recreation," as the lakes and streams teem with the finest game fish.—Field and Stream.

FURTHER DETAILS OF DISASTER

Wrecking of Emigrant Steamer Charterhouse.

Hong Kong, Oct. 6.—Further details have been received of the wreck of the emigrant steamer Charterhouse, plunging between Hoihow and Hong Kong, which foundered off Hainan Island on Sept. 30, with the loss of more than 60 lives. The North German Lloyd steamer Kohsichang picked up a raft belonging to the Charterhouse, on which were Chief Engineer Dowse, 23 of the crew and two women after they had been drifting for 43 hours.

On the third and last evening, Oct. 1, the survivors on the raft descried smoke on the horizon. On observing the Kohsichang's hull there was great rejoicing and the party became frantically happy at the prospect of quenching their maddening thirst and appeasing their hunger. Captain Rodesky of the Kohsichang rescued the survivors, including a little boy. They had almost collapsed from exhaustion and were carried on board the Kohsichang, being unable to walk. Despite the doctor's unremitting attention the boy died an hour after being taken aboard. Chief Engineer Dowse has been removed to a hospital. The crew of the Kohsichang gave unbounded attention to the survivors.

Among those who went down with the Charterhouse and were drowned were Captain Nelifton, Chief Officer Farquison, Second Officer Grigor and Engineers Forbes and Maurmann, besides the ship's doctor and 60 others.

Danger from the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of coughs and colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo. Walls of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents Pneumonia, cures lagrippe, gives wonderful relief in asthma and hay fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off consumption. Coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottle free.

Insanity On the Increase.

New York, Oct. 6.—The delightful forecast of "The World Gone Mad" is held up to us by Dr. Forbes Winslo, says a London dispatch to the Times. "According to the statistical figures on insanity," says the doctor in an interview, "it can be shown that before long there will be actually more lunatics in the world than sane people. The burning problem of the day is how to prevent this increase of insanity. What is the use of wasting time and energy on an educational bill, when we have before us this absorbing problem, the contemplation of an insane world to deal with?"

Jackson, Ga., Oct. 6.—The negro fair here is an assured success, commencing Oct. 22-29, at Jackson. Several hundred exhibitors have already entered the various contests. The Dixie band of Atlanta will furnish music. Eminent speakers from various parts of the state will be present and speak. The Southern Railway has given reduced rates from various points. Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to, I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better, and continued to improve until I was entirely well." Green Withdraws From Race.

Houston, Tex., Oct. 6.—E. H. Green, son of Mrs. Hettie Green, and vice president of the Texas Midland railroad, has withdrawn as the "reorganized Republican nominee" for governor of Texas, Dr. Atchison, brother of Congressman Atcheson of Pennsylvania taking his place on the ticket. The "re-organized Republican party of Texas" was organized in protest of the methods of the regular Republican organization and to make a "lily white" party.

LEADS FOR APPEAL JUDGE.

Russell Certainly Named For New Court, But Other Places In Doubt.

Atlanta, Oct. 6.—Judge Richard B. Russell is still leading in the race for the three judgeship places on the new court of appeals, according to the official consolidated returns received from 115 counties.

The race between Powell, Hill and Peeples for the two other places is still too close to make any estimate of the result more than mere guess work.

Returns from 115 counties show a difference of only a few hundred votes between these last three. The popular vote so far reported for the four leading candidates is as follows:

Russell	26,956
Powell	19,331
Hill	19,006
Peeples	18,520

Only 800 votes between the second and fourth man, and with several counties still to hear from, this difference is easily subject to change. Not until the complete official returns are in will it be known who is the personnel of the new court.

Don't Be Imposed Upon.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 6.—With a shot hole through his right lung, Hump Bell, a driver, was found dead in his hack on Plum and Third streets. No trace of his slayer was found, and it has not been determined as to who fired the shot. The hack moved on down the street and a string of blood revealed that after the negro was killed his horse was started.

An Awful Cough Cured.

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing, just like one with the whooping cough and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat," writes Mrs. Ora Bussard, Brubaker, Ill. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Russell Hopkins Weds.

Peekskill, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Russell Hopkins of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Vera Siegrist of New York were married on the yacht Uno Thursday while the yacht was anchored off Peekskill. It is said the marriage was a runaway affair, the parents of Miss Siegrist objecting on account of her youth, she being but 17 years of age.

Nothing to Fear.

Mothers need have no hesitancy in continuing to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. It has a world wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup and can always be relied upon. For sale by all druggists.

MOOR OF VENICE

F THE OTHELLOS AND IAGOS OF THE PAST.

mous Actors Have Been Suc- l In the Great Tragedy--Ed- Kean's Characterization of oor--Kean's Death.

struck by the number of great who have attempted Othello and in it. The really successful are a very small and select y. Burbage, one assumes, was ginal Moor, and was probably l in it as in any other part he get in Mr. Pepys' Diary two references to the play. On Oct. 0, he tells us he went with Mr. ry and Mr. Creed to see "The of Venice," as it was always then. It "was well done. Burt the Moor. By the same token a pretty lady that sat by me called see Desdemona smothered." years later, on Feb. 6, 1668, he s: "To the king's playhouse, and in an upper box did see 'The of Venice,' but ill acted in most Mohun, which did a little sur- me, not acting Iago's part by h so well as Clun used to do; nor ther Hart's, which was Cassio's, nor ed Burt doing the Moor's so well I once thought he did." But Mr. pys was in a bad temper that night, his carriage had broken down on way home, and he was "mightily xed, poor wretch."

Betterton's Othello would appear to ave been a remarkable performance. ne writer speaks of "the terrible force his Othello," and Addison says: "The wonderful agony which he appeared in when he examined the circumstance of the handkerchief in the part of Othello, the mixture of love that intruded upon his mind upon the innocent answers Desdemona makes, betrayed in his gesture such a variety and vicissitude of passions as would admonish a man to be afraid of his own heart."

It was in the Portugal Street theater, sometimes styled the Duke's theater, that Betterton played, but we have unfortunately but little record of his appearance in the part, nor do we know how he was dressed for it. The costume some of the old actors adopted for the part appears to modern taste quite ludicrous. In his "Autoblography" Reynolds tells us he remembered seeing Spranger Barry play Othello in a full suit of gold laced scarlet, a small cocked hat, knee breeches and silk stockings.

Garrick was but a poor Othello except in the scene where Iago first implants the suspicion of Desdemona, and Quin was very little superior. But Garrick did, at any rate, adopt Moorish costume, a startling innovation, which led one writer to say that he was unmeaningly dressed. On the first night Quin was in the pit and when Garrick entered exclaimed in allusion to Hogarth's black boy: "Here's Pompey, by ——! Where's the lamp and the teakettle?"

John Philip Kemble also did much to improve the public ideas on the fitness of costume in the theater. The stiff skirted coat, breeches, waistcoat, black face, white, full bottomed wig and three cocked hat which tradition prescribed for Othello despite Garrick's laudable endeavor was swept away after Kemble's time. He himself played Iago much better than Othello, and Byron said of the performance that it was perfection.

Another very excellent Iago was George Frederick Cooke. Playing the part one night at York, he was loudly hissed by two or three men in the audience, who cried out, "What a villain!" It was a compliment he much appreciated.

Coming to Edmund Kean, we find this actor playing Othello and Iago on alternate nights. Dr. Doran says of Kean's Othello, "In the fiercer scenes he was unsurpassable, and in the great third act none who remembers him will, I think, be prepared to allow that he ever had or is likely to have an equal." His Iago was quite original, "a careless, cordial, comfortable villain," as Hazlitt calls him.

Subsequently Kean played Othello to the Iago of Young. It had been arranged that they should alternate the parts, but after the first performance Kean preferred to leave Iago to Young. "I flatter myself," he said to Whitbread, who was then manager of Drury Lane, "he could not act Othello as I, yet what chance should I have in Iago after him with his musical voice?"

Kean's last appearance on the stage, on March 25, 1833, was in "Othello," with his son Charles as Iago. Kean went through the play, "dying as he went," until he came to "Farewell! Othello's occupation gone." Then he gasped for breath, tried to begin the next speech and fell forward on his son's shoulder, moaning: "I am dying. Speak to them for me."

Charles Young was excellent as Iago, but when he tried Othello later to the Iago of Macready he failed altogether. Hazlitt said of the performance: "Young in Othello was like a great humming top, and Macready in Iago like a mischievous boy whipping him."

There have been other Othellos since, but few of renown. There was Gustavus Brookes, who appeared in the part at the Olympic in 1848; Charles Kean, at the Princess' in 1853; Salvini, who played it first at the Queen's, in Longacre, in 1875; Fechter played it without success in 1861; Phelps played it at the Princess, at Covent Garden, at Sadler's Wells and elsewhere; Sir Henry Irving first played the part in 1876 and subsequently alternated Othello and Iago with Edwin Booth; and, more recently, Forbes Robertson and Hubert Carter.

There have, of course, been burlesque Othellos, but in three cases at least the burlesque was quite unintentional. Othello was chosen for the first appearance of Samuel Foote at the Haymarket in 1744. The future droll and mimic was short and stout, with a round, flat face, and his acting of the Moor to the Iago of Macklin must have been very funny. But a century later, at the same theater, Sothern, of Dundreary fame, played Othello with Buckstone as Iago, which must have been even more amusing. Charles Mathews, the Seymour Hicks of an earlier age, also attempted Othello once, but only once. —New Orleans Times-Democrat.

TESTING METHODS

A test as to the value of newspaper advertising over other methods was made a year ago by the great publishing house of Harper & Bros. Two books were selected, one by a well known popular author and the other by an unknown writer. The latter was selected for the newspaper advertising and the other for the usual channels.

With equal expenditure the work advertised in the newspapers outstripped the other in sales by 200,000 copies.

The result was a complete surprise and established the fact that readers go to the newspapers for information with regard to books as well as with regard to most other matters.—National Printer-Journalist.

The best advertising medium for any merchant is the local paper which goes into the homes of the people, as this paper does.

Sports of British Columbia.

If Nimrod came to British Columbia he would experience another heyday. The sports of the forest and stream are triumphant there. Moose, elk, caribou, mountain goats and sheep, bears—grizzly, brown and black—mountain lions, or cougars, and deer of several kinds range in sufficient numbers for sport almost anywhere and in ample quantities for ruthless slaughter in many places, so that Nimrod, whether pothunter or sportsman, as the modern lines are drawn, would surely find satisfying excitement and trophies worthy of his fame and skill. Small game, too, spreads throughout the country, and the biggest bags are easily filled in a few hours' shooting. And old Izaak Walton, the father of angling, would find an abundance of the "contemplative man's recreation," as the lakes and streams teem with the finest game fish.—Field and Stream.

SECRETARY W. H. TAFT.
Provisional Governor of Cuba.

A Young Mother at 70.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. Twenty years of intense suffering from dysyepsia had entirely disabled her, until six months ago, when she began taking Electric Bitters which have completely cured her and restored the strength and activity she had in the prime of life," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpanrick of Danforth, Me. Greatest restorative medicine on the globe. Sets stomach, liver and kidneys right, purifies the blood, and cures malaria, billiousness and weakness. Negro Fair at Jackson.

Jackson, Ga., Oct. 6.—The negro fair here is an assured success, commencing Oct. 22-29, at Jackson. Several hundred exhibitors have already entered the various contests. The Dixie band of Atlanta will furnish music. Eminent speakers from various parts of the state will be present and speak. The Southern Railway has given reduced rates from various points. Great credit is due to Rev. C. C. Neal, who, by his wise and modest plans, has plased the fair on a permanent basis and has succeeded in securing the co-operation of the white citizens.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to, I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better, and continued to improve until I was entirely well." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Green Withdraws From Race.

Houston, Tex., Oct. 6.—E. H. Green, son of Mrs. Hettie Green, and vice president of the Texas Midland railroad, has withdrawn as the "reorganized Republican nominee" for governor of Texas, Dr. Aichison, brother of Congressman Atcheson of Pennsylvania taking his place on the ticket. The "re-organized Republican party of Texas" was organized in protest of the methods of the regular Republican organization and to make a "lily white" party.

Makes Homely Women Pretty.

No woman no matter how regular her features may be can be called pretty if her complexion is bad. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and clears sallow blotched complexions by stimulating the liver and bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Remember the name Orino and refuse to accept any substitute. J. W. McCollum & Co.

LEADS FOR APPEAL JUDGE.

Russell Certainly Named For New Court, But Other Places In Doubt.

Atlanta, Oct. 6.—Judge Richard B. Russell is still leading in the race for the three judgeship places on the new court of appeals, according to the official consolidated returns received from 115 counties.

The race between Powell, Hill and Peeples for the two other places is still too close to make any estimate of the result more than mere guess work.

Russell	26,956
Powell	19,331
Hill	19,006
Peeples	18,520

Only 800 votes between the second and fourth man, and with several counties still to hear from, this difference is easily subject to change. Not until the complete official returns are in will it be known who is the personnel of the new court.

Don't Be Imposed Upon.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Macon Hack Driver Is Shot.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 6.—With a shot hole through his right lung, Hump Bell, a driver, was found dead in his hack on Plum and Third streets. No trace of his slayer was found, and it has not been determined as to who fired the shot. The hack moved on down the street and a string of blood revealed that after the negro was killed his horse was started.

An Awful Cough Cured.

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing, just like one with the whooping cough and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat," writes Mrs. Ora Bussard, Brubaker, Ill. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Russell Hopkins Weds.

Peekskill, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Russell Hopkins of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Vera Siegrist of New York were married on the yacht Uno Thursday while the yacht was anchored off Peekskill. It is said the marriage was a runaway affair, the parents of Miss Siegrist objecting on account of her youth, she being but 17 years of age.

Nothing to Fear.

Mothers need have no hesitancy in continuing to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. It has a world wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup and can always be relied upon. For sale by all druggists.

Killed Two Prisoners.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, Oct. 6.—A military patrol which was conducting two revolutionists to jail here was attacked by revolutionists, who attempted to rescue the men in custody. The soldiers promptly killed both prisoners
